

Independent Preschools

Independent preschools are licensed under the Children and Young People Act 1999 and are required to comply with the ACT Independent Preschools Conditions for Approvals in principle and Licences. These conditions set minimum standards in areas such as staffing, Management of the Preschool, Health and Safety Measures, Buildings and Facilities and Activities for Children and Excursions.

Independent Preschools employ qualified staff and provide care and education for children aged not less than three years and not more than six years, and is not sponsored by ACT Department of Education.
