

FEMINISM and WOMEN'S STORIES

Updated September/10

F 1

Stolen Women : Reclaiming Our Sexuality, Taking Back Our Lives / Gail

Elizabeth Wyatt

1997 ISBN 0471297178

The myths and stereotypes of African-American women's sexuality are explored.

F 2

What is Feminism, Anyway : Understanding Contemporary Feminism / Chris

Beasley

1999 ISBN 1864484373

From liberal feminism to queer theory, the author provides clear explanations of the many types of feminism.

F 3

Women's Worth : Pay Equity and Job Evaluation in Australia / Clare Burton et al

1987 ISBN 0644060603

Recommendations are made for changing the ways the work of women is perceived, described and evaluated particularly in the context of Equal Opportunity and Affirmative Action [EEO] programs.

F 4

Don't Take Your Love to Town / Ruby Langford

1988 ISBN 0140111735

Ruby Langford was born at Box Ridge Mission, Coraki, NSW in 1934 and her story is of the changing ways of life in Aboriginal communities - rural and urban; the disintegration of traditional lifestyles and the sustaining energy that has come from renewal of Aboriginal culture in recent years.

F 5

The Condition of the People : Social Welfare in Australia 1900-1975 / Ronald

Mendelsohn

1979 ISBN 0868611131

The history of Australian social welfare measures (standards of living and quality of life, poverty and deprivation, charity and voluntary action, workers and employment, vulnerable groups including Aboriginal people, women, children, aged people and people with disabilities, income security, health, housing, and education and training) and how these measures relate to the daily life of Australians compared with the efforts of similar countries are analysed.

F 6

Keeping the Peace / Lynne Jones editor

1983 ISBN 0 7043 3901 3

A collection of stories from the history of the women's peace movement. Includes practical information and resources for women interested in initiating new actions for peace.

F 7

We are Bosses Our-selves : the Status and Role of Aboriginal Women Today / edited by Fay Gale

1983 ISBN 0855751398

Aboriginal women were, and still are, the social and economic equals of men in their society and played active roles in the decision-making of their groups. Five different views of the general role of Aboriginal women today are presented, the significance of Aboriginal women in the fight for land rights is outlined, and contemporary issues which are important to Aboriginal women (including health, education, employment and family history) are explained.

F 8

Women and the Law / Jocelyne A. Scutt

1990 ISBN 0455209847

At the turn of the century, women were refused the right to practice law by Australian courts and legislature. Law and courts discriminated against women in other ways both in private and public spheres. This book traces the roots of that discrimination and the efforts of women (and a few men) to eliminate such prejudice.

F 9

I always wanted to be a tap dancer : women with disabilities / edited by Annee Lawrence

1989 ISBN 0730563987

Twelve women write of their lives in relation to their disabilities.

F 10

Ducks on the Pond / Anne Summers

2000 ISBN 0 14 027808 7

The authors story encompasses the conformity of the 1950's, the political radicalism and the rock music of the 1960's, the sexual revolution, women's liberation and the Whitlam phenomenon of the 1970's.

F 11

Shoulder to shoulder : a documentary / Midge MacKenzie

1975 ISBN 01400409350

Stories of the militant suffragettes and the struggle for the right of women to vote.

F 12

Mothering against the odds : diverse voices of contemporary mothers / edited by Cynthia Garcia Coll et al

1998 ISBN 1572303395

We all know what a "good mother" looks like on television and in the popular imagination: Typically she is white, heterosexual, and married, and devotes herself full-time to childcare. But increasing numbers of women who mother today do not fit this narrow traditional image, and their different experiences of mothering are often maligned, misunderstood, or ignored.

F 13

Worth her salt : women at work in Australia / edited by Margaret Bevege, Margaret James, Carmel Shute

1982 ISBN 086806002X

The lives of Australian women and their struggle for social change in the area of employment are presented.

F 14

Australia's founding mothers / Helen Heney

1978 ISBN 0170050912

The significance of the part played by women in early Australian history is documented.

F 15

Silk and calico : class, gender and the vote / Betty Searle

1988 ISBN 0868063096

The book focuses on the ideas and activities of three Australian feminists – Lilian Locke, working women's champion and Vida Goldstein, pioneer of women's right to enter parliament and Rose Scott, NSW suffragette. In doing so, it is both a history of the first wave women's movement in Australia and an important study of gender and class in feminist politics.

F 16

In pursuit of justice : Australian women and the law 1788-1979 / edited by Judy MacKinolty et al

1979 ISBN 090809446

Twenty-two essays about Australian women and the legal system from convict days to anti-discrimination legislation in the 1970s are outlined, and issues of 'hidden' rules for women, economic hardship, and women's rights are explored.

F 17

The politics of women's studies / Rita Helling

1981 ISBN 095941570X

This textbook covers material for a women's studies course (covering education, communication skills, 'the perfect women', assertiveness, women's groups, employment, problem-solving and planning, social expectations, relationships with men, health, sexuality and feminism) and analyses the philosophy and practice of the women's movement.

F 18

Leading women : tactics for making the difference / Eva Cox

1996 ISBN 0091830702

In the book the author challenges all Australian women - and men - who are dissatisfied with their present political leaders to initiate change and become leaders themselves.

F 19

F 20

F 21

On the edge : women's experiences of Queensland / edited by Gail Reekie

1994 ISBN 0702224618

The history of women in Queensland brings together feminism and regionalism and touches on themes such as ruralism, the frontier, isolation and distance, and settlement in the tropics.

F22

Colonial Eve : sources on women in Australia 1788-1914 / edited by Ruth Teale

1978 ISBN 019550545X

This book presents a fascinating, moving and sometimes comical glimpse of the other half of Australia's history between 1788 and 1914.

F 23

F 24

The politics of housework / Ellen Malos

1980 ISBN 0850313279

The various ways that housework is managed – shared or rotated, wages for unpaid labour, and even deconstructing family life – are investigated to see which liberates women from the assumption that only women do the housework and look after the children.

F 25

Feminist readings - feminists reading / Sara Mills and Lynne Pearce

1996 2nd edition ISBN 0133753956

Feminist thinking as it relates to literary criticism is explored and issues of sexual politics, authentic realism, gynocriticism, Marxist feminist criticism, biological criticism, French criticism are covered. Post-colonial feminist theory and lesbian theory are included.

F 26

Affirmative action and sex discrimination / Chris Ronalds

1991 Updated 2nd edition ISBN 0949138088

This handbook is an essential reference book for women, women's organisations, employers, trade unions and other interested in the impact of these laws, their content and their interpretation.

F 27

Women faith and fetes : essays in the history of women and the church in

Australia / edited by Sabine Willis

1977 ISBN 0859240665

The history of women and the Church in Australia and also the influence of the Church and its teaching on women in Australian society are illustrated by stories of how women have answered the challenges of their own Christian faith in their times.

F 28

Getting equal : the history of Australian feminism / Marilyn Lake

1999 ISBN 186508137X

The book provides new understandings of women's activism and new perspective's on Australian politics: it shows that feminists were leading theorists of citizenship and the welfare state and outspoken advocates of Aboriginal rights and international law. But the goal of equality has also proved problematic: participating in the world on men's terms has reinforced the masculine standard as the norm.

F 29

Bisexuality : identity, politics and partnerships / Dulwich Centre [USA]

1999 ISSN 14411091

Dulwich Centre journal 1999 no. 1 has articles divided into two sections – 'Exploring issues of identity' and 'Crossing the divide : experiences of building bridges'. They cover political, transgender, partnership, and violence issues, and responses from the gay, lesbian and straight world,

F 30

It is no secret : the story of a stolen child / Donna Meehan

2000 ISBN 0091839947

An Aboriginal girl adopted by a white couple when she was five found her birth family and healed her feelings of confusion and loss.

F 31

Faces of feminism / Olive Banks

1981 ISBN 0855202610

This is an original and illuminating history of modern feminism in Britain and the USA from the early nineteenth century to the present day.

F 32

Independent women : creating our lives, living our visions / Debra Sands Miller

1998 ISBN 1885171250

Profiling over seventy women of all ages and occupations, the author takes a look at what independence means to women today and how their lives are transformed by self sufficiency that includes a network of relationships.

F 33

Are you somebody? / Nuala O'Faolain

1996 ISBN 0340728868

The author is a well known Irish journalist and this is her story of being raised in Dublin by an alcoholic mother and a charming, feckless father and then deals with her own desperate search for truth, love and knowledge.

F 34

Bureaucrats, technocrats, femocrats : essays on the contemporary Australian state / Anna Yeatman

1990 ISBN 0044421036

This collection of essays in political sociology and Australian public administration deals with issues of State intervention, democracy, and social movements such as the women's movement, multiculturalism, gay rights and environment activism.

F 35

Men and sexual politics : towards a pro-feminist practice / Bob Pease

1997 ISBN 0958667802

This book outlines the author's personal and political path through many of the questions and dilemmas that men face in attempting to come to terms with issues of gender. It is shared in the hope that it will stimulate discussion and contribute to ongoing community attempts to address issues of gender injustice.

F 36

Women - shaping and sharing the future : the new National Agenda for Women 1993-2000 / Office of the Status of Women

1993 ISBN 0644286806

Government plans for women's issues to the year 2000.

F 37

F 38

When I am an old woman I shall wear purple / edited by Sandra Haldeman Martz

1991 ISBN 0868245178

A collection of writings and photographs evokes the beauty, humour, and courage of women living in their later years and tells of the endearing moments of joy - and passion - to be found in the rich and varied world of midlife and beyond.

F 39

Forgiveness and other acts of love : finding true value in your life / Stephanie Dowrick

1997 ISBN 0670873608

The author has re-examined the six great humane virtues - courage, fidelity, restraint, generosity, tolerance and forgiveness - brought them completely up to date. At a time when most belief systems seem exhausted or irrelevant, she shows how these qualities, far from being dull or constraining, have immensely far-reaching personal and social benefits.

F 40

A God who looks like me : discovering a woman-affirming spirituality / Patricia Lynn Reilly

1995 ISBN 0345402332

In this book, the personal memories of women of all ages and lifestyles are interwoven with the collective story of women buried in the Hebrew Scriptures and the Christian Bible.

F 41

There's more to life than sex and money : 103 inspirational stories to give your life new meaning / Sue Calwell and Daniel Johnson

1997 ISBN 0140263594

Life changing events in women's lives are illustrated in stories about openness, self-knowledge and belief, giving of yourself, changing priorities, loving life and learning from life.

F 42

The goddess within : a guide to the eternal myths that shape women's lives /

Jennifer Barker Woolger and Roger J Woolger

1990 ISBN 0712639349

Women played a powerful and important role in many ancient religions and civilisations and in this book 'goddess psychology' is used to enlighten and inspire women to control and transform their lives.

F 43

Feminists fatale : the changing face of Australian feminism / Jan Bowen

1998 ISBN 073225860X

The seventeen women interviewed in this book display a vast range of experiences and viewpoints about feminism in Australia.

F 44

A woman's place : women and politics in Australia / Marian Sawer and Marian Simms

1993 ISBN 1863731695

The book examines the definitions of politics which have rendered women and women's concerns invisible, and looks at the role played by women in all aspects of the political process.

F 45

The world moves slowly : a documentary history of Australian women /

Beverley Kingston

1977 ISBN 0726947024

This book is a collection of documents illustrating the diversity of women's experience in Australian history. Where possible women's own observations and comments have been used.

F 46

From a camel to the moon / edited by Leonie Christopherson

1999 ISBN 0646387022

An anthology of memories, poems and stories written by older women and published for the International Year of Older Persons.

F 47

Letters from a fainthearted feminist / introduced by Jill Tweedie

1982 ISBN 0330269089

This funny book about the women's movement takes the form of a one-sided correspondence.

F 48

The search for the beloved : journeys in mythology and sacred psychology /

Jean Houston

1987 ISBN 0874774764

The nature of spiritual yearning is explored and ways to facilitate the quest for enlightenment are suggested.

F 49

Icons, saints and divas : intimate conversations with women who changed the world / Susan Mitchell

1997 ISBN 0733225731X

Post-war feminist writers Erica Jong, Phyllis Chesler, Robin Morgan, Marilyn French, Gloria Stenhem, Betty Frieden, Naomi Wolf, Alice Walker, Kate Millet, Susan Faludi and Germaine Greer talk about their lives and their work.

F 50

If I had my life to live over I would pick more daisies / edited by Sandra

Haldeman Martz

1992 ISBN 0868245186

Through stories, poems, and photographs we see how women's alternatives are both extended and limited by personal belief systems, ethnic and cultural identity, class and economic status, age, and gender.

F 51

Silken cords : beyond 'Dear Kate' / Kate Samperi et al

1999 ISBN 0091836964

This book tell the stories of four women, Kate Samperi, her daughter and her two grand-daughters. Compelling, entertaining and moving, these stories span three generations of family in a sharply honest exploration of blood ties and identity.

F 52

Sister girl : the writings of Aboriginal activist and historian Jackie Huggins /

Jackie Huggins

1998 ISBN 0702228400

The book examines many topics, including community action, political commitment, the tradition and value of oral history, and government intervention in Aboriginal lives.

F 53

The skeptical feminist : discovering the virgin, mother and crone / Barbara G.

Walker

1987 ISBN 0062509357

Patriarchal religion, patriarchal convention and social conditioning should be rejected and the validity of feminist religion embraced.

F 54

De-institutionalising women : an ethnographic study of institutional closure /

Kelley Johnson

1998 ISBN 0521625696

This book explores the lives of twenty-one women living in a locked unit within a large institution for people with intellectual disabilities and examines the impact of de-institutionalisation on them, their families and their carers.

F 55

Home grown anthology / Majura Women's Group

1992 ISBN 0646142348

Stories from a Canberra women's writing group.

F 56

The sexual gerrymander / Jocelyne A Scutt

1994 ISBN 1875559167

Women face a social and political gerrymander or disempowering in the areas of work, power and public recognition, and in the realms of domestic violence, rape, pornography, prostitution or structural sexism.

F 57

Trust the women : women in the Federal Parliament / Ann Millar

1993 ISBN 0642195234

Commemorating the fiftieth anniversary of the advent of women to the Australian Federal Parliament in 1943, this is a fascinating account of the fifty-nine women who have been members of the Parliament since that time.

F 58

reality of life for women with disabilities.

F 59 & 59A

The beauty myth / Naomi Wolf

1990 ISBN 0099861909

The relationship between female beauty and female liberation is examined.

F 60

Caring words : life experiences in caring and coping / Eunice Coffey et al

1993 ISBN 0646160656

A group of seven people, aged from late twenties to late seventies, either caring for themselves or a loved one, come together to discover each other in the course of their common interest in writing.

F 61

Beauty and the beast : woman, ape and evolution / Carole Jahme

2000 ISBN 1860494757

Women primatologists have made great contributions to the study of ape behaviour which can be applied to human beings.

F 62

No more frogs, no more princess: women making creative choices at midlife / [edited by] Joanne F Vickers and Barbara L. Thomas

1993 ISBN 0895946254

Twenty biographies and stories of American women in their forties and fifties tell of looking within themselves to discover new directions for their lives and specifically dealing with health problems and death of parents, changing relationships, taking responsibility, gaining vitality, finding identity, making career changes, and renewing spirituality.

F 63

Put your whole self in : a group of women, their moving stories, a healing pool / Meme McDonald

1992 ISBN 0140168184

The stories of these older women, in and away from the swimming pool, are told with tenderness and simplicity.

F 64

Glorious age : growing older gloriously / Jocelyne A Scutt

1993 ISBN 1875658033

Twenty two 'wise women' who are growing older talk of their lives and their contribution to society and families in areas of politics, work, and the lives of others.

F 65

Birth without doctors : conversations with traditional midwives / Jacqueline Vincent-Priya

1991 ISBN 1853830933

Most women giving birth in rural communities throughout the Third World cannot enjoy the "benefits" of modern medical assistance. They are usually too expensive and too far away. This book is the result of journeys and conversations between the author, traditional midwives and mothers which took place over several years in Malaysia and Indonesia.

F 66

Herstory : women in Western Australian history / Women's Advisory Council

1985 ISBN 0730902633

A history of some Western Australian women and how they are related to politics and law, the family, health, religion, education, work, and leisure from the Dreamtime to the present.

F 67

"It must be that time of the month " and other lies that drive women crazy /

Georgia Witkin

1995 ISBN 0140251464

Fourteen most commonly believed stereotypes about women (issues of self-esteem, menopausal changes, career aspirations, sexual desire, body image, emotional lability, mechanical aptitude, mothering, susceptibility to illness, assertiveness, romance, marriage, financial incompetence, ageing denial) are countered.

F 68

Less than equal : women and the Australian legal system / Patricia Eastal (2 copies)

1995 ISBN 0 409 31666 0

This book examines the interaction between women and the law through a cultural holistic framework. Dr Eastal identifies various 'lenses' or 'mirrors' within our culture that affect how women fare in their contact with the Australian legal system. It is geared towards students, lawyers as well as the general public. Individual chapters focus on women's interactions with the courts, tribunals, police and prisons as defendants, victims, plaintiffs, and practitioners.

F 69

Crossing the barriers : Filipino women stories : an anthology of migration / Marlene Agmata-Tucker (editor)

This book is a compilation of the life stories of the outstanding Filipino-Australian women nominated to the 2001 FAWA (Filipino-Australian Women Achievement) Awards in the ACT and Capital Region. Their stories speak of the challenges they encountered in their effort to integrate themselves into their adopted country. It is hoped that their stories will inspire not only the present generation of migrants but those who, in the future, will come to share the task of enriching a vibrant multicultural Australia.

F 70

Splitting the World Open. Taller Poppies and Me. / Susan Mitchell

2000 ISBN 1 86508 413 1

Looks back on two decades of successful women, asking questions about what they have achieved individually and collectively, publicly and privately.

F 71

Crossing to Avalon / Jean Shinoda Bolen

1994 ISBN 0062502727

A Woman's Midlife quest for the grail and the goddess.

F 72

Damned Whores and God's Police / Anne Summers

1996 ISBN 0140288767

Women's lives in Australia – a new edition of the classic work. A compelling account of how Australian culture has limited women's participation in their own society.

F 73

Black Chicks Talking / Leah Purcell

1997 ISBN 0733610706

Sets out to overturn the old stereotypes and showcase ten spirited young black women making their mark in contemporary Australia.

F 74

The Change. Women, Ageing and the Menopause / Germaine Greer / 1991 / ISBN 0 241 13312 2

"The purpose of this book is to demonstrate that women are at least as interesting as men, and that ageing women are at least as interesting as younger women."

F 75

My Place / Sally Morgan

1993 ISBN 0 949206 31 8

Autobiography of three generations of Aboriginal women.

F 76

Against the Wind / Glenda Bates

2003 ISBN 1 74027 208 0

Adoptees and relinquishing mothers. 1920's – 1960's Yorkshire England.

F 77

Girlosophy / Anthea Paul

2003 ISBN 1 74114 077 3

Interpersonal relations. Life skills guides for young women.

F 78

The End of Equality: work, babies and women's choices in 21st century

Australia / Anne Summers/

2003 ISBN 1 74051 287 1

Examines the diverse realities of Australian women at the start of the 21st century. A social, economic and political analysis echoing the voices and experiences of Australian women of all ages and backgrounds.

F 79

Australian Women /Norma Grieve & Ailsa Burns

1997 ISBN 0195535030

Contemporary feminist thought.

F 80

Weaving a Double Cloth / Myra Jean Bourke, Susanne Holzkecht & Anni Barlett

2001 ISBN 1740760182

Stories of Asian-Pacific women in Australia.

F 81

The complete Book of Great Australian Women / Susanna De Vries

2002 ISBN 073227804

Thirty six significant women reflecting the changing role of women in Australia from pioneering days to the present.

F 82

Talking like a TOORA Woman / Elena Rosenman

2003 ISBN 064 6430 53 X

A story of TOORA Inc in the words of the women who live it.

F 83

Oh no, we forgot to have children/ Deirdre Macken

2005 ISBN 1 74114 477 9

A book that explores the issue of fertility and how can we put children back on the agenda without sacrificing all the freedoms that women have gained.

F 84

Working with the stories of women's lives/ Dulwich Centre Publications

2001 ISBN 09577929 3

A collection of stories from a diversity of women about their own lives and the women with whom they work. Chapters include: ways of understanding gender relations; talking about birthing stories; the implications of the stolen generations of Indigenous women's lives; overcoming the effects of sexual abuse; women's experiences of migration; the stories of lesbian lives; working with older women and many more.

F 85

Working From the Inside/ Marian Sawer and Abigail Groves

1994 ISBN 0644 35240 6

Twenty years of the Office of the Status of Women

F 86

Among the Carrion Crows/ Dame Edith Lyons

1972 ISBN 1 86302 597 9

An autobiography by the first woman to enter the Australian House of Representatives and to become a Member of Cabinet.

F 87

Oxford Australian Feminism/ edited by Barbara Caine

1998 ISBN 0 19 553818 8

A comprehensive reference guide to feminist involvement in Australian society, government, politics and culture

F 88

Everyone Needs Cleaners, Eh!/ Rose Costelloe and Liz Murphy

1997 ISBN 0 646 32670 8

Tells the story of migrant women cleaners through poems, anecdotes and interviews.

F 89

Take 40/ Leanne Mercer

2003 ISBN 0 7329 1167 2

Good Morning Australia's executive producer, Leanne Mercer, talks to 40 women about their lives and ideas for turning 40. This book also shares ideas for looking and feeling good, along with advice on careers, dating, marriage and having a baby at 40.

F 90

I Knew A Woman/ Courtney Davis

2001 ISBN 0 375 50418 4

This book is an extraordinary blend of memoir, fiction and clinical detail. The author dignifies the female body by shedding light on the complex psychological lives of females whose hormones peak and plummet.

F 91

Fire with Fire : The new female power and how it will change the 21st century /
Naomi Wolf

1993 ISBN 070 1 60853

The feminist movement has enabled women to gain more political ground than ever before but successful women are afraid to speak up on women's issues for fear of being marginalised, while others are afraid of being "economically silenced". A blueprint for a revitalised, positive and inclusive brand of feminism is explained

F 92

Fight Like a Girl: How to be a Fearless Feminist / Megan Seely

2007 ISBN 978 0 8147

Offers a fearless vision for future feminism, with an eye toward what it takes to create actual change.

F 93

Doris Women's Refuge

1998 ISBN 978 0 646 48337 5

A 30-year history of Doris Women's Refuge. A Canberra refuge for women and children escaping domestic violence.

F 94

Celebrations! Sinhalese and Sri Lankan Women in Canberra / Badra
Karunarathna

2008 ISBN 9780646476568

A collection of testimonies and memories of the lives of Sri Lankan and Sinhalese migrant women in Canberra and ACT region.

F 95

Princesses and Pornstars-Sex Power Identity / Emily Maguire

2008 ISBN 9781921351310

With a mix of personal story, interview, analysis and polemic the author asks: What happened to women's rights in the era of porn and botox? What role models do women have beyond princesses and pornstars? What does the modesty movement have in common with raunch culture?

F 96

Between the Lines: stories of 11 women / compiled by Barbara Baikie

2008 ISBN 978-0-646-49664-1

These stories reveal the unifying themes in the lives of women everywhere within the often narrow boundaries mapped out for them.

F97

Encyclopaedia of Feminism / Lisa Tuttle

1986 ISBN 0 09 944900 5

The organisations that have protected and advanced the rights of women, influential events in women's history, slogans, books, ideas and the feminists themselves are described from a feminist viewpoint.

F98

Australian Women – Feminist Perspectives / Norma Grieve and Patricia Grimshaw

1981 ISBN 0 19 554293 2

Explores the position of women in Australian society from a broad range of perspectives.

F99

Women of Ideas – And What Men Have Done to Them / Dale Spender

1982 ISBN 0 7448 0003 X

A well researched, holistic history of feminist political theory in the English speaking world.

F100

The Pankhursts / Martin Pugh

2002 ISBN

A history of the suffragette heroines, Emmeline Pankhurst and her daughters, in Victorian England.

F101

Women Race and Class / Angela Davis

1982 ISBN 0 7043 3892 0

Passion and scholarship are brought together to analyse the differences and the similarities between the experiences of black and white women.

F102

On Lies Secrets and Silence / Adrienne Rich

1980 ISBN 0 86068 156 4

A collection of prose pieces and writings which investigate literature, politics, women's history and culture.

F103

Of Woman Born – Motherhood as Experience and Institution / Adrienne Rich

1977 ISBN 0 86068 031 2

Drawing on medicine, anthropology psychology and literature, the author explores the contradictory pleasures and pains of motherhood.

F104

Gyn/Ecology The Metaethics of Radical Feminism / Mary Daly

1979 ISBN 0 7043 3850 5

The writings of a revolutionary feminist. A scholarly look at global patriarchal violence to women.

F105

Pure Lust – Elemental Feminist Philosophy / Mary Daly

1984 ISBN 0 7043 2847 X

The female lust for change. The author encourages the reader to break out of the guilt and fear which entraps women and exhorts women to the "Courage to Sin".

F 106

Beyond God the Father / Mary Daly

1973 ISBN 0 7043 3993 5

An analysis of the oppression of women over the last 3,000 years from Genesis to the writings of contemporary theologians. The author exposes "the misogyny at the core of the Judaeo-Christian religion."

F 107

Power and Sex / Scilla Elworthy

2002 ISBN 1 84333 251 5

A melding of Eastern philosophy, tribal culture from the Third World, Japanese and Chinese tradition and yoga in a discussion of how women can discover the power within themselves in a new era of feminism.

F 108

Making Women Count / Marian Sawyer - 2 copies

2008 ISBN 978 086840 943

A history of the Women's Electoral Lobby in Australia, drawing on extensive archival, survey and media evidence.

F 109

Between the Lines / Barbara Bakie - Editor with foreword by Virginia Haussegger

2008 ISBN 978 0 646 49664 1

Stories by 11 Canberra women from a variety of cultural backgrounds. Reveals the unifying lives of women within the often narrow boundaries mapped out for them.

F110

A Work in Progress / Mary Hutchison and Merrindahl Andrew

2009 ISBN 978 0 646 52427 6

The history of the YMCA of Canberra from 1929 to 2009.